

South Carolina Regional Transmission Planning
Spring Stakeholder Group Meeting
June 16, 2008 10:00 AM – 3:00 PM
Agenda

1. Welcome & Introduction Clay Young & Tom Abrams
2. Purpose and Goals of Today's Meeting Tom Abrams
3. Stakeholder Group Sector Representatives Tom Abrams
4. Overall Planning Cycle Tom Abrams
5. Identify Economic Power Transfer Sensitivities to be Studied Clay Young
 - a. All requested sensitivities will be considered except sensitivities that specify specific generation resources
 - b. Up to 5 sensitivities will be identified for study. If more than 5 are requested, Stakeholder voting members will vote to select the top five
 - c. Sensitivities that are not selected by the voting process as one of the 5 studied sensitivities will be studied only if the requestor(s) pays for the additional study efforts
 - d. Economic power transfer sensitivities with sources or sinks outside the SCRTP area will be advanced to the Southeast Inter-Regional Participation Process (SIRPP)
6. Model Development Update Joseph Hood
7. Reliability Study Activities Stan Shealy
 - a. VACAR 2013 Summer/Winter Study
 - b. VACAR – Southern Interface Study
8. Summer Operating Study Activities Jim Peterson
 - a. SERC NTSG 2008 Summer Reliability Study
 - b. SERC East – RFC 2008 Summer Interregional
9. New Transmission Investment in the Southeast Jim Peterson
10. SCRTP Website Clay Young
11. Southeast Inter-Regional Participation Process (SIRPP) Clay Young
12. Next Meeting Activities Clay Young
13. Closing Comments Clay Young & Tom Abrams
14. Adjourn